

Identification Requirements

You must bring the following items with you when you apply for a beginner's permit or license of any type:

- Birth certificate
- Social security card
- Two proofs of address
- Insurance information

For additional information, please see the following forms on our website:

MV-93 for US citizens, and MV-94 for international customers.

Special Requirements

If you are under 17, there are special requirements you must meet to apply for a Conditional Provisional or Special Restricted driver's license, you must:

- Have a parent or guardian sign your application.
- Practice driving with your licensed parent or guardian for at least 40 hours, including 10 hours during darkness.
- Complete a driver's education course.
- Hold a beginner's permit for at least 180 days.
- Be currently enrolled in school.
- Conform to SC attendance laws and regulations.
- Not be suspended or expelled from school.

Driver License Suspension

If you are under 17 and accrue six or more points on your driving record before you have held your license for one year, your license will be suspended for six months. Also, if you are convicted of a traffic offense or involved in an at-fault accident, the driving restrictions will not be removed from your license for one year from the last offense or until you reach 17 years of age.

South Carolina
Department of Motor Vehicles
P.O. Box 1498
Blythewood, SC 29016

SCDMV Contact Center
(803) 896-5000

Visit our website
for more information
and online transactions:
www.scdmvonline.com

Ready for the Road?

A Step by Step Guide to the Licensing Process for Teens
in South Carolina

Getting Your South Carolina Driver's License

STEP 1 Beginners Permit

Step 1

Beginner's Permit

If you've never had a driver's license, you must begin with a beginner's permit.

- You must be at least 15 years old
- You must pass the vision and knowledge test
- You may drive from 6 :00 AM to midnight if a licensed driver who is at least 21 years old with at least one year of driving experience is in the front seat with you. After midnight, you must be with a licensed parent or guardian.
- You must hold your beginner's permit for at least 180 days before you apply for any type of license. Application can be made on the 181st day or anytime there after.

STEP 2 Conditional Provisional

Step 2

Conditional Provisional Driver License

If you are 15 and have held your beginner's permit for 180 days, you may be eligible for a Conditional Provisional License after passing the vision and skills test. With this type of license:

- You may drive alone only during daylight hours, from 6:00 AM to 6:00 PM or to 8:00 PM during daylight savings time.
- After 6:00 PM, or 8:00 PM during daylight saving time, until midnight you may drive if you are accompanied by a licensed driver who is at least 21 years old.
- If you drive after midnight, you must be accompanied by a licensed parent or guardian.
- You cannot transport more than two passengers under the age of 21 unless you are with a licensed driver who is at least 21 years old. The only exception is if you are transporting family members or students to and from school.
- You must wait two weeks to re-test if you fail the skills test on the 1st or 2nd attempt to pass. You must wait 60 days if you fail on the 3rd or subsequent attempt before being re-tested.
- See the Special Requirements section of this brochure for more information.

STEP 3 Special Restricted

Step 3

Special Restricted Driver License

The same time and passenger restrictions that apply to a Conditional Provisional License also apply to a Special Restricted License. The difference, however, is that you can request a waiver for the restricted times if you provide proof from your parent or guardian, and your school official, employer, church official or sports official that the hours interfere with your school, work, church or sports activities. You must be 16 years old to request a waiver. See the Special Requirements section of this brochure for more

Step 4

Regular Driver License

You will obtain full driving privileges when you are 16 if you have had your Conditional Provisional license or Special Restricted License (or a combination of the two) for one year and have had no traffic violations and have not been involved in any at-fault accidents. You will not have to visit a DMV office to get your full driving privileges because DMV will mail you a special driver license sleeve that you must keep with you when you are driving.

STEP 4 Regular License